Get Service

Video: http://safeshare.tv/v/D38S9o_6qnc

Cavalier Challenge: Too much of the time we are impatient and caught up in ourselves. This can be created is content within us. It is interesting how discontent happens when we forget about compassion. Even though we cannot help everyone a heart of compassion and understanding can take us a long way. When we take the focus off of ourselves and look for even small ways to show caring for others it has a lasting positive affect on those around us but even more so for ourselves. Your challenge is to consider ways that you can step outside of yourself and care for the people around you. How can you be of service to the people you meet? Compassion and care for others is one of the fastest ways to exact change in our world.
